

REMINDER —

INTERNET PRIVACY BRIEFING

DIALOGUE ON DIVERSITY

1629 K STREET, N.W., SUITE 300

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036

TEL: [FfxVA] 703-631-0630, FAX: [FfxVA] 703-631-0617

E-MAIL: DIALOG.DIV@PRODIGY.NET, URL: WWW.DIALOGUEONDIVERSITY.ORG

DIALOGUE ON DIVERSITY invites you to join with IT users and producers, Congressional staff, women entrepreneurs, civil society staff and executives, and other friends of Dialogue on Diversity for a prime issue of the decade ahead, growing apace with the rapid progress in the volume, speed, and pervasiveness of this transforming medium of information and communication. An international Data Privacy Day is observed on the day following, the 28th of January, joining businesses, academia, government, and civil society as they focus their thought and energies on these newly essential issues.

... a Pre-Data-Day briefing, January 27, on Internet Privacy,

TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2009, 12:00 NOON – 3:00 P.M.

THE WASHINGTON HOME OF STEWART MOTT, 122 MARYLAND AVENUE N.E.

NEAR CAPITOL HILL. – METRO: CAPITOL SOUTH OR UNION STATION; PARKING: UNION STATION

AGENDA

OVERVIEW:

Gregory L. Rohde, former Assistant Secretary of Commerce, to 2001, President of e-Copernicus, an IT consulting firm.

MEDICAL INFORMATION: THE RIVAL IMPERATIVES

Deven McGraw, Center for Democracy and Technology

COMMERCIAL DATA BASES AND THE TRANSPARENT CONSUMER

S. Jenell Trigg, Partner, Lerman Senter, PLLC

Katrina Blodgett, Senior Attorney, Identity and Privacy, Federal Trade Commission

SECURITY AND ITS TRAVAILS: THE PENETRATING EYES OF GOVERNMENT

Jim Harper, Director for Information Policy Studies, Cato Institute

WE HAVE NOTHING TO HIDE: HEAVY WEATHER ON THE SOCIAL NETWORKS

Shireen Mitchell, President, Digital Sisters, Inc.

AFTERWORD AND A LOOK AHEAD:

Rep. David Price, U.S. House of Representatives, North Carolina, Author of a Resolution for Proclamation of a National Data Privacy Day

MC: Manuel A. Rosales, Secretary to the Board, The Latino Coalition, former Associate Administrator, S.B.A., for International Trade

RSVP by January 23: by e-mail at dialog.div@prodigy.net or

Register online at www.dialogueondiversity.org

No fee for this Briefing program [light lunch provided]