

DIALOGUE ON DIVERSITY

AMERICAN ISLAMIC CONGRESS

IN PARTNERSHIP PRESENT

With Sponsoring Organizations, W.R.E.I., Institute for Women's Policy Research, National Council of Women's Organizations, N.E.A, National Women's Political Caucus, U.S. Census Bureau, AFT, and others –

THE 2010 PUBLIC POLICY FORUM — FOR National Women's History Month

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 2010 AT THE MARVIN CENTER
800 TWENTY FIRST STREET, N.W., GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

FINAL INVITATION TO REGISTER

1:30 p.m. Greeting and Overview: Eleanor Holmes Norton [invited]

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH - THE CONDITION OF WOMEN: CULTURAL AND ECONOMIC ASPECTS

Ma. Cristina Caballero, President/CEO, Dialogue on Diversity

Zainab al-Suwaij, Executive Director, American Islamic Congress

Esther Aguilera, President/CEO, Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute

2:15 KEY SPEAKERS

The Special Tasks of Women in Education and the Quest for Peace

Harriet Fulbright, President, The J. William and Harriet Fulbright Center

Roles of Women: Prospects for Order in an Age of Economic Disarray

Heidi Hartmann, Ph.D., President, Institute for Women's Policy Research

2:55 THE SOURCES OF HUMAN CAPITAL – TREASURE IN SMALL PACKAGES

Early Childhood Education – Giselle Lundy-Ponce, American Federation of Teachers

Schools: Their Capacity for Achievement – Rita Jaramillo, Minority Community Outreach, N.E.A.

Census 2010 - The Count of Immigrant Communities – Irma F. Harahush, U.S. Census Bureau

4:00 TOUGH TIMES: THE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POWER OF WOMEN

Gabriela Lemus: Ph.D., Director, Office of Public Engagement, Department of Labor

Clarie Giesern, Executive Director, National Women's Political Caucus

Susan Scanlan, President, Women's Research and Education Institute (W.R.E.I.)

5:00 – 6:30 RECEPTION