FRIDAY, JULY 17, 2009 8:30 AM – 3:30 PM
U.S. CAPITOL VISITORS CENTER HC 215, WASHINGTON, D.C.

SITE INSTRUCTIONS

- To reach the Capitol Visitors Center it is best to use Metro trains, exiting at either Capitol South (1st and C Streets, S.E.) on the Blue/Orange line, or Union Station on the Red Line. The Capitol is several blocks' walk from either of these Metro stations.
- Enter the Visitors Center by the entrance ramp on First Street, S.E. (midway between Constitution and Independence Avenues, immediately across from the Supreme Court). Proceed to the far end of the entrance hall (Do not wait in the line of U.S Capitol visitors – explain you are at the Visitors Center for a Conference).
- Attendants (recognizable by their red coats) will direct you to HVC 215, the hall where Dialogue on Diversity's Conference is to be held.
- Take along this invitation to aid the House side receptionist in directing you to the correct destination in the extensive set of Visitors Center meeting rooms.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION
WE WILL SEE YOU ON FRIDAY, JULY 17TH!
