

Looking for ways to teach and support your English language learners? Visit www.ColorinColorado.org, the most widely used online resource for educators and families of ELLs for over a decade. Whether you need book lists, information on what works in the classroom, or tips to make kids feel welcome, Colorín Colorado is here for you!

- Stay up-to-date on instruction and policies affecting ELLs.
- Be inspired by interviews with leading experts in the field.
- Download guides, parent tip sheets, lesson plans, and bilingual information.
- Connect with educators around the country.
- And find much, much more to help you help our ELLs read, succeed, thrive, and feel part of our schools and larger communities.

Colorín Colorado is a collaborative project of PBS Station WETA and the American Federation of Teachers.

A Union of Professionals